Lindsley is an excellent resource that I would recommend on many levels. He is intelligent, adaptable, ethical and creative. A strength that I admire most is his ability to leverage business relationships, cut costs, discover hidden expenses and under-utilized savings with proven results for small to mid-sized businesses that were closing their doors, now having the ability to continue on and see a profit! I was fortunate to work for Lindsley very early in my professional career. His dedication to getting the job done and his dynamic leadership style instilled confidence in me as a young professional and prepared me for future challenges and roles, allowing me to advance my career. Lindsley delegates responsibility easily and drive results without micro-managing. I hope to work with Lindsley again!

I've known Lindsley since the early 1990's when we both joined Daisytek; a fast-paced computer supplies distributor. I watched Lindsley's progress as he rose through the ranks with his ability to solve problems including successfully implementing large complex projects such as international expansions. He can adeptly interact across organizational levels from c-suite through line personnel to deliver exceptional results.

Jean Theuns

Global Executive Search, Interim, HRM, Consultancy & Coaching

I have worked with Lindsley within the framework of CEO Netweavers (www.ceonetweavers.org) for the past five years. He is an outstanding leader, who dedicates his efforts to help others. His executive experience and shared interests have helped many of our members and those communities that we serve. He has a broad range of management experience that provides consultative insights and creates significant value. His positive approach to life is refreshing and inspiring.
